Facilities to BRO personnel

*311. DR. NARAYAN SINGH MANAKLAO: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that the personnel of Border Road Organisation (BRO), though work in critical border areas, do not get the facilities of ration, uniform, etc., commensurate to their counterparts in Defence services;

(b) if so, the details thereof in comparative terms;

(c) whether there is any demand/proposal to bring parity between them; and

(d) if so, whether Government support such demand?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE): (a) to (d) The Border Roads Development Board (BRDB) was set up in March 1960 for the development of roads in the North and North Eastern border areas of the country. The executive arm of the BRDB is the Border Roads Organisation (BRO), whose workforce comprises both of Army personnel and Civilian personnel known as the General Reserve Engineers Force (GREF).

3. Unlike the Army which is a fighting force, the Border Roads Organisation (BRO) constructs and maintains roads in border areas and other parts of the country. The Army is governed by the Defence Services Regulations and the Border Roads Organisation is governed by the Central Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeals) Regulations, 1965. There was a demand from the personnel of the BRO for parity with the Army. This issue was examined by the Committee set up by the Department of Defence, which submitted its report on 6th September, 2000. The Committee made the following recommendations of which most were accepted. The status is indicated below:
